

Key Steps towards a Successful Event

You're Delivery Checklist

When the PeakRentals.com truck arrives, possession and responsibility for all products rented transfers to the client.

- Ensure that your PeakRentals.com driver confirms accurate product quantities as per the delivery documentation.
- Sign for the verified order on the delivery sheet

Your Pickup Checklist

When the PeakRentals.com truck returns, possession of and responsibility for all products rented transfers back to PeakRentals.com.

- Place all products in the pre designated pick up location.
- Ensure that your PeakRentals.com driver confirms accurate product quantities per the pickup sheet.
- Sign for the verified quantities on the pickup sheet. *If you or your on-site contact is not present at the appointed time, the PeakRentals.com pickup product counts will be the final ones. Any missing items will be billed accordingly.
- Let your PeakRentals.com driver know if anything did not work well or live up to your expectations at the event.
